

Legacies and Wills

Leaving All Saints' Church a gift in your Will is a lasting way to support our Church in its mission and ministry within our local community. Once you have made provision for your loved ones, you have the opportunity to make a lasting gift to God by leaving a legacy to His church.

You can also amend or add to your existing Will by means of a Codicil, which is normally cheaper than writing a full Will.

Any solicitor would recommend that you also look into Lasting Power of Attorney if you have not already done so. By using a professional adviser, this ensures not only that your estate is distributed as you would wish, but also that you have minimised your taxable contribution, leaving more for those you care about and good causes.

What sort of gift can I leave in my Will?

A donation to All Saints' in your Will is a great way to leave something behind to continue to secure our mission to bring the wonderful light of Jesus into our local community. Whether you give a little or a lot, your donation will help us to keep on with our life changing mission.

Types of gifts:

A gift of an object or contents of a property.

A gift of a specific sum of money (this is also known as a pecuniary legacy).

Leaving a share of the rest of your estate once you have remembered the needs of those you have loved and who have supported you in your lifetime (also known as a residual legacy).

Your gift can be to a specific area of church life (i.e. Youth Work or The Organ Fund) or can be unspecified and go into church general funds to be used at the discretion of the PCC.
